

PRESS RELEASE

GEORGE BUSH INTERCONTINENTAL (IAH) AWARDED SILVER NOZZLE 2007

George Bush Intercontinental Airport (IAH) was recently awarded the “Silver Nozzle” award for Organizational Excellence for 2007 by the National Petroleum Management Association (NPMA).

Maintenance Manager Steve Minter and General Manager Harold Loy Accept Award

Facts about IAH:

- IAH was named the fastest growing of the top 10 airports in the US by the U.S. Department of Transportation (2006).
- IAH ranked #2 in the US for scheduled non-stop domestic and international services (181 destinations) (2007)
- IAH is ranked #1 in the US for on-time performance of any US airport according to the Department of Transportation (2007).
- Allied Aviation is responsible for fueling over 97% of the aircraft that depart IAH on a yearly basis

For Release November 29th, 2007